Forecast For The United Kingdom
Issued by Met Office Exeter
at 1600 on Wednesday 06 Oct 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Very wet in western Scotland. More settled elsewhere.

This Evening and Tonight:
Outbreaks of rain and drizzle in the west moving northeastwards, rain becoming persistent and heavy across western Scotland. Clear spells in the east at first, turning chilly, before clouding over later.

Thursday:
Windy in the northwest with further rain affecting Scotland and Northern Ireland, heavy on hills. Elsewhere, fog patches clearing and low cloud breaking to allow some bright spells; feeling warmer.

Outlook for Friday to Sunday:
Rain continuing across parts of Northern Ireland and Scotland before easing over the weekend. Largely dry elsewhere with variable cloud and early fog patches. Temperature above average at first.
